

New California Law

Effective January 1, 2017

NEW LAW ADDITION: The new law requires children under 2-years old to be rear-facing unless they weight 40-pounds or more, or are 40-inches tall or more.

➤ REAR-FACING ONLY CAR SEATS:

After a child outgrows a rear-facing only seat, usually around 1-year of age, the next seat is a convertible seat, also rear-facing, then converts to forward-facing.

➤ CONVERTIBLE CAR SEATS:

Convertible seats keep the child rear-facing to 40, 45 or even 50-pounds, between 3-5 years of age. Follow instructions printed on the side of the car seat.

Rear-facing longer

-to upper height/weight
printed on car seat-

is safest

Rear-facing to at least
2-Years of Age

Pro Car Seat Safety

A division of Pro Consumer Safety

www.procarseatsafety.com

National CPS

Certification

